

RESOURCE CARDS — ONE SET PER TEAM

Cut along the borders. ● marks the 12-card core set for the supported sort. Prints clean in black and white.

Iron ore ● Rock rich in iron — the base of steel	Gold ● Precious metal mined across WA	Lithium ● Light metal used in batteries
Natural gas ● Fossil fuel piped and shipped as LNG	Nickel Metal for stainless steel and batteries	Bauxite The ore aluminium comes from
Coal ● Fossil fuel formed from ancient plants	Crude oil ● Refined into petrol and plastics	Diamonds Crystals formed deep underground
Sand Ground rock — glass and concrete	Sunlight ● Energy arriving from the sun daily	Wind ● Moving air that turns turbines
Wave energy Energy in ocean waves	Geothermal heat Heat from inside the Earth	River water ● Fresh water flowing in rivers
Groundwater ● Water stored in aquifers	Timber ● Wood harvested from forests	Fish stocks Wild fish caught for food
Soil ● The living layer plants grow in	Sea salt Salt evaporated from ocean water	Challenge card Human skill and knowledge — is a workforce a resource? Where does it belong, and why?

